10 TIPS FOR DIRECT IMPLEMENTATION FOR THE WORK AS AN EROTIC MODEL AND EROTIC INFLUENCER

Tip I: Register a trade in good time. The work as a model is subject to the trade obligation in most nations as almost all areas of work. To avoid getting an annoying letter from the tax office at the end of your first year, you should have registered a business before your first payout.

Tip II: Consistency is the key to success. Posting regularly and with variety is the key to success. At least one image, video or GIF per day is what you should be posting. Especially in combination with voice messages ("How are you?, How was your week?, I wish you a nice start into the week, etc.) this increases the personal connection of your fans to you, making you an important part in the lives of your fans.

Tip III: Working as a model is not a solo battle. Find trusted friends who can help you manage your content as well as respond to messages. Some users are only active at certain times of the day, but would also love to receive a reply or have a wish fulfilled. Friends can also share your stories or post for you there.

Tip IV: Use interactive content. Polls, Q&A sessions, calls to share to encourage your fans to interact and engage more. The more actively your community interacts with you, the stronger their bond with you will grow. And many members will give you gifts without you having to do anything in return. With questions you can also gain knowledge about the preferences of your fans and use this for future postings.

Tip V: Post your content across platforms. For example, Twitter has a much higher tolerance for NSFW content than Instagram, and not just in the erotic realm. You shouldn't upload your content and promotions only on Instagram. Tiktok, Twitter, Telegram and especially Reddit are powerful marketing tools that fly under the radar. You can also post excellent teasers for your explicit content there.

Tip VI: Respond to your fans' requests and offer them customized content. If a fan wants to see you in a special cosplay or outfit, they are often willing to pay for it. Seasonal content is especially useful for special events such as Halloween, Saint Patrick's Day or Christmas.

Tip VII: Use your own landing page on your social networks. Instagram or TikTok can still remove your link tree or ban you by linking to your OnlyFan or another erotica account. To reduce the chance of this to completely zero, having your own website with a landing page is the best option. In addition, you can also track the calls and the origin of these much better. If you don't have any experience with website programming, you can find programmers on portals like FIVERR for just a few hundred euros or dollars.

Tip VIII: Work with professional photographers. These often provide you even free of charge very good technology, images and / or videos that you can use to pack even higher-quality content between your self-created content. Especially as separately purchasable sets this method offers itself.

Tip IX: Use freebies as an enticement. Give out this free bonus content to your most loyal fans, so you also increase their loyalty to you. You shouldn't push your sales content among the crowd, of course, but a really inciting teaser will make your fans want more and may convince one to subscribe to you. This method works best on websites that are basically "Free", like an OnlyFans Free account.

Tip X: Take advantage of all the technical possibilities.
